

Denise Lewis

DIRECTOR OF OUTREACH & COMMUNITY ENGAGEMENT

Denise Lewis is the Director of Outreach and Community Initiatives for VetJobs and Military Spouse Jobs, two unique non-profit organizations that provide employment readiness and job placement assistance for all veterans, military spouses, National Guard and reserves, transitioning military, and caregivers of war wounded.

Denise is an Army Brat who was born and raised in West Point, NY. She is an Army retired spouse who has been an advocate for the Army her entire life. Denise holds a Master's in Management and Leadership. As an Army spouse, Denise moved 26 times in 34 years and was affected by employment opportunities, promotion, retirement, and pay inequities. Denise is grateful for the ability to still serve and ensure that ALL our military-affiliated candidates have opportunities for career enhancement and employment. Denise's outreach initiatives are strategic and is in alignment with the organization's goals to ensure that we recruit candidates who are underserved in military-affiliated populations. Denise also manages several programs in the organization, the Survivor, Goldstar Caregiver and Employment Network (SGCEN), the Maria McConville Career Internship program (MMCIP), and Military Youth Job Network (MYJN).

Denise lives in the Outer Banks of North Carolina which affords her the opportunity to have a work and life balance.
