INDEPENDENT AUDITOR’S REPORT

To the Board of Directors of Military Spouse Jobs

Opinion

We have audited the accompanying financial statements of Military Spouse Jobs (“the Organization”), which comprise the statements of financial position as of December 31, 2025 and 2024; the related statements of activities, functional expenses, and cash flows for the years then ended; and the related notes to the financial statements.

In our opinion, the financial statements referred to above present fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of the Organization as of December 31, 2025 and 2024, and the changes in its net assets and its cash flows for the years then ended in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Basis for Opinion

We conducted our audits in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor’s Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements section of our report. We are required to be independent of the Organization and to meet our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with the relevant ethical requirements relating to our audits. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion.

Responsibilities of Management for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of the financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America, and for the design, implementation, and maintenance of internal control relevant to the preparation and fair presentation of financial statements that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial statements, management is required to evaluate whether there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the Organization's ability to continue as a going concern within one year after the date that the financial statements are available to be issued.

Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance but is not absolute assurance and therefore is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control. Misstatements are considered material if there is a substantial likelihood that, individually or in the aggregate, they would influence the judgment made by a reasonable user based on the financial statements.

In performing an audit in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, we:

- Exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit.
- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, and design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks. Such procedures include examining, on a test basis, evidence regarding the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements.
- Obtain an understanding of internal control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances, but not for the purpose of expressing an opinion on the effectiveness of the Organization's internal control. Accordingly, no such opinion is expressed.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of significant accounting estimates made by management, as well as evaluate the overall presentation of the financial statements.
- Conclude whether, in our judgment, there are conditions or events, considered in the aggregate, that raise substantial doubt about the Organization's ability to continue as a going concern for a reasonable period of time.

We are required to communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit, significant audit findings, and certain internal control related matters that we identified during the audit.

Military Spouse Jobs

Notes to Financial Statements
December 31, 2025 and 2024

1. Nature of Operations

Military Spouse Corporate Career Network, Inc., d/b/a Military Spouse Jobs (“the Organization”) is a nonprofit organization formed in 2004. The Organization provides no-cost employment readiness, vocational training, and one-on-one job placement services for military spouses and caregivers of war-wounded. The Organization operates with a user-friendly internet gateway available to job seekers and partnered employers. The Organization is supported through public grants, contributions, and investment income.

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Basis of Accounting and Presentation

The Organization’s financial statements and footnotes are prepared in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles in the United States of America. Net assets are reported based on the presence or absence of donor-imposed restrictions as follows:

- Net Assets Without Donor Restrictions – Net assets available for use in general operations and not subject to donor (or certain grantor) restrictions.
- Net Assets With Donor Restrictions – Net assets subject to donor- (or certain grantor-) imposed restrictions. Some donor-imposed restrictions are temporary in nature, such as those that will be met by the passage of time or other events specified by the donor. Other donor-imposed restrictions are perpetual in nature, where the donor stipulates that resources be maintained in perpetuity. Donor-imposed restrictions are released when a restriction expires, that is, when the stipulated time has elapsed, when the stipulated purpose for which the resource was restricted has been fulfilled, or both.

Investments

Investments are recorded at fair value based on quoted market prices. All realized and unrealized gains and losses, less investment fees, are reported as a component of net investment income in the accompanying statements of activities.

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies (continued)

Revenue Recognition

Revenue Accounted for in Accordance with Contribution Accounting

Unconditional grants and contributions are recognized when received. Conditional promises to give, that is, those with a measurable performance or other barrier, and a right of return, are not recognized until the conditions on which they depend have been met. Amounts received prior to satisfaction of grant conditions are reported as refundable advances in the statements of financial position. The Organization reports gifts of cash and other assets as restricted support if they are received or promised with donor stipulations that limit the use of the donated funds to one of the Organization's programs or to a future year. When a donor restriction expires, that is, when a stipulated time restriction ends or purpose is accomplished, net assets with donor restrictions are reclassified to net assets without donor restrictions and reported in the statements of activities as net assets released from restrictions.

Functional Allocation of Expenses

The costs of program and supporting services activities have been summarized on a functional basis in the accompanying statements of activities. The statements of functional expenses present the natural classification detail of expenses by function. Accordingly, certain costs have been allocated among the programs and supporting services benefited.

Advertising Costs

Advertising costs are expensed as incurred. The Organization did not have any advertising costs for the years ended December 31, 2025 and 2024.

Use of Estimates

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting practices requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the amounts reported in the financial statements and accompanying notes. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies (continued)

Subsequent Events

In preparing these financial statements, the Organization has evaluated events and transactions for potential recognition or disclosure through July 16, 2026, the date the financial statements were available to be issued.

3. Liquidity and Availability

Financial assets available for general expenditures, that is, without donor or other restrictions limiting their use, within one year of the statements of financial position date, comprise the following at December 31:

	2025	2024
Cash	$ 129,567	$ 176,538
Short-term investments	1,239,604	1,186,469
Total financial assets	1,369,171	1,363,007
Less: donor-restricted funds	-	(915,832)
Total available for general expenditures	$ 1,369,171	$ 447,175

4. Concentrations of Credit Risk

Financial instruments that potentially subject the Organization to significant concentrations of credit risk consist of cash and investments. The Organization maintains cash deposit and transaction accounts, along with investments, with various financial institutions and these values, from time to time, exceed insurable limits under the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation (FDIC) and Securities Investor Protection Corporation (SIPC). The Organization has not experienced any credit losses on its cash and investments to date as it relates to FDIC and SIPC insurance limits. Management periodically assesses the financial condition of these financial institutions and believes that the risk of any credit loss is minimal.

5. Investments and Fair Value Measurements

The Organization follows Financial Accounting Standards Board Accounting Standards Codification 820, Fair Value Measurement, for its financial assets. This standard establishes a fair value hierarchy that prioritizes the inputs to valuation techniques used to measure fair value. Fair value measurement standards require an entity to maximize the use of observable inputs (such as quoted prices in active markets) and minimize the use of unobservable inputs (such as appraisals or other valuation techniques) to determine fair value. The categorization of a financial instrument within the hierarchy is based upon the pricing transparency of the instrument and does not necessarily correspond to the entity's perceived risk of that instrument.

The inputs used in measuring fair value are categorized into three levels. Level 1 inputs consist of unadjusted quoted prices in active markets for identical assets and liabilities and have the highest priority. Level 2 is based upon observable inputs other than quoted market prices, and Level 3 is based on unobservable inputs. The Organization recognizes transfers between levels in the fair value hierarchy at the end of the reporting period.

In general, and where applicable, the Organization uses quoted prices in active markets for identical assets to determine fair value. This pricing methodology applies to Level 1 investments. The Organization also invests in certificates of deposit and U.S. government securities, which are valued based on quoted prices for instruments that are identical or similar in markets that are not active and for which all significant inputs are observable, either directly or indirectly, in active markets. As such, these assets are classified as Level 2.

The following table presents the Organization's fair value hierarchy for those investments measured on a recurring basis at December 31, 2025:

	Level 1	Level 2	Level 3	Total
Money market funds	$ 683,224	$ -	$ -	$ 683,224
Fixed income:
U.S. government securities	-	531,918	-	531,918

6. Net Assets With Donor Restrictions (continued)

The Organization receives restricted grant funding from various donors to support its mission of providing career placement services to veterans and military spouses. The nature and purpose of each fund group is summarized below:

- Boeing WWRP – grant awarded to support initiatives aimed at closing the skills gap and promoting workforce re-entry among women, with a focus on veterans and military spouses.
- Prudential – grant provided in support of the Organization’s overall mission and charitable programs, including services that assist veterans in obtaining meaningful employment.
- VetJobs – grant awarded to support the veteran job placement services.
- USAA – grant awarded to further the Organization’s charitable purpose, including its full range of services aimed at placing veterans into long-term, sustainable careers.
- Wells Fargo – grant designated for the Veterans on Track program, which aligns with the Organization’s mission by offering targeted employment support services to veterans.

7. Related Party Transactions

The Organization shares common corporate officers and directors with VetJobs, Inc., an affiliated nonprofit organization with a similar mission and programmatic focus. During the years ended December 31, 2025 and 2024, the Organization received contributions from VetJobs totaling $67,000 and $98,000, respectively.

In addition, the Organization shares a corporate officer with DK Consulting, LLC and DLK Consulting, LLC, which provide subcontracted labor services to the Organization. For the years ended December 31, 2025 and 2024, DLK Consulting, LLC received nonemployee compensation totaling $27,000 and $46,335, respectively. DK Consulting, LLC received nonemployee compensation totaling $35,600 and $53,225 for the years ended December 31, 2025 and 2024, respectively.

8. Functionalized Expenses

The financial statements report certain categories of expenses that are attributed to more than one program or supporting function. Therefore, expenses require allocation on a reasonable basis that is consistently applied. Where feasible, the Organization allocates its expenses directly to specific functions. The expenses that are allocated indirectly include salaries and benefits, which are allocated on the basis of estimates of time and effort.

9. Income Taxes

The Organization is recognized as a tax-exempt organization under Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code and is exempt from income taxes except for taxes on unrelated business activities. No provision for income taxes has been made as there were no net unrelated business activities during the years ended December 31, 2025 and 2024.

Management has evaluated the Organization's tax positions and concluded that there are no uncertain tax positions that qualify for either recognition or disclosure in the accompanying financial statements.
